17 IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, that the privacy protection measures mandated by 18 18 U.S.C. § 3509(d), when a case involves a person under the age of eighteen years
19 who is alleged to be a victim of a crime of sexual exploitation, or a witness to a crime 20 committed against another person, apply to this case, thus;

21 IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that all persons acting in this case in a capacity 22 described in 18 U.S.C. § 3509(d)(1)(B), shall:

23 1. Keep all documents that disclose the name or any other information 24 concerning a child in a secure place to which no person who does not have reason to 25 know their contents has access; and

26 2. Disclose such documents or the information in them that concerns a child 27 only to persons who, by reason of their participation in the proceeding, have reason 28 to know such information;

1 IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that all papers to be filed in court that disclose
2 the name of or any other information concerning a child shall be filed under seal
3 without necessity of obtaining a court order, and that the person who makes the filing 4 shall submit to the clerk of the court --

- 5 1. the complete paper to be kept under seal; and
- 6 2. the paper with the portions of it that disclose the name of or other 7 information concerning a child redacted, to be placed in the public record.

8 IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that counsel for the government and counsel for 9 defendant shall provide one another with a copy of each unredacted pleading filed in 10 this case, provided that such pleading is not filed in camera.

11 IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the parties and the witnesses shall not 12 disclose either alleged minor victim's names at pre-trial proceedings or at trial in this 13 case. The parties shall prepare their witnesses and instruct them to refer to the 14 alleged minor victims only by using pseudonyms, such as initials, which will be 15 agreed to by counsel, rather than their names, in opening statements and in closing 16 arguments.

17 DATED January 3, 2019.
